Exhibitors pack their goods (with own packaging material). The packaged goods will be stored free of charge until off-site transportation. No goods can be left at the event area after the exhibition ended. All goods must be packed up.

Handling of exhibition goods and stand material

Transport to and from the MELIÄ hotel must be organized by exhibitors. Goods are to arrive at hotel's service entrance (Weidendamm) April 19-23, 2023. It will be stored in a roofed area free of charge until the conference. For safe transport to the allocated stand by a forklift, heavy and large-sized goods should be packed on the European standard pallet EPAL (Measures 80 x 120 x 14,4 cm). In this case goods must be delivered by a truck with loading ramp. Empty pallets and all packaging material will be stored free of charge during the conference. Since the conference's exhibition area is located in a publicly accessible place, we recommend locking away any valuable equipment overnight. ICULTA 2023 organizers and MELIÄ hotel assume no liability for any loss or damage.
